

Airing an anti-Kerry documentary does not serve public interest. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. In order to make an informed decision in November, citizens need to hear both sides of a story. It's unfair and undemocratic to air something that only serves the interest of one political party, and not air something on behalf of the other party. Thank you.